OUTRAGES IN CUBA.

Charnel House Filled With Dead Bodies.

FEEDS WHICH SICKEN THE SOUL.

The Half Has Not Been Told of the Awful Occurrences at Guanabacoa—More Fighting Has Taken Place Near Havana. Clearance Papers Withheld From the Dauntless—Other Cuban War News.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—A Key West dispatch to The World says: Evidence of awful butcheries at Guanabacoa accumulate daily, advices from Havana report. A great pit filled with corpses and human fragments was discovered Monday in a cane field not more than a mile from that place. A careful investigation revealed at least 20 whole bodies and many more legs and arms, other parts of the dismembered bodies being missing. Of the bodies remaining entire, four were those of women, three of young misses, one of a girl not more than 10 years old, four of boys and the rest of men.

Permission to bury the remains was brutally refused with a threat that if this slaughter was complained of, many more would be added to what Spanish officials called the "Cuban dirt pile."

The edict refusing permission to remove furniture and other things, unless asked for 24 hours previously, is taken advantage of by the Spanish soldiers to wreck buildings and revile and insult, if not kill, persons suspected of Cuban leanings.

Some families in the poorer section of the city, who did not know of the edict, started to move Sunday night. After they had loaded their furniture on wagons the police and soldiers fired on them, killing eight persons, including several innocent passers-by. In the official report it was stated that the troops had been attacked and that several rebels had been killed.

A girls' school near the center of the town was entered by troops one day last week, and the principal, an elderly Cuban born woman, very prominent, was compelled to kneel to the officer in command and beg pardon for using translations of text books printed in the United States. The girl pupils were insulted and rudely treated until the school was broken up in disorder. A complaint to the commandant only excited laughter that "such a little thing" was complained of.

Havana is much agitated by rumors of victories won by Gomez' army, of the successful crossing of the trocha into Pinar del Rio, and of several routs of the Spanish troops. General Weyler is execrated on every hand, but on account of the severe censorship and Weyler's system of spies no one dares say a word aloud. Everyone thinks his neighbor a spy and little can be learned from any one.

Spies by the hundred attend the open air concerts and the least dissatisfaction expressed is used as a pretext and the victim is thrust into the Cabanas or Morro castle, most likely never to be seen again by friends or kindred. Scarcely a night passes but from 10 to 20 persons disappear and every one knows what that means.

SEVERE FIGHTING REPORTED.

Insurgents Very Active All Along the Line of the Trocha.

KEY WEST, Jan. 9.—Advices received here from Havana show that at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of Jan. 3, the insurgent force, commanded by Juan Delgado, opened fire on the forts at Calabazar, province of Havana. The military governor, Major Justiz, had charge of the troops in the garrison, and they resisted the attack of the insurgents so bravely that the latter were obliged to retreat. On the following morning the insurgents renewed their attack simultaneously on forts Nos. 5, 6, 7 and 8, with a lively discharge of musketry which was answered by the garrisons.

At the same time the insurgents burned the fine dwelling of Senor Fernando Garcia, situated near the railroad station. The flames from the burning building brightly illuminated the city, causing great alarm among the people in the town.

The bullets flew thickly, many of the missiles penetrating dwellings and the store of Pedro Barcena was pierced in 20 different places.

The Spanish troops finally compelled the insurgents to retreat. While the Cubans were retiring they destroyed with their machetes all the tobacco that had been planted in the vicinity.

The insurgents also attacked the village of Rancho Boyero, but without result.

The same advices confirm the report that Calixto Garcia, with 5,000 well armed insurgents, after an engagement and upon the arrival of General Bosch's convoy at Bayamo, marched toward Jiguani, which place they besieged for the space of five days. It is said that the garrison of the town heroically resisted the attack of the insurgents until the arrival of the column of General Bosch, when Calixto Garcia and his men were compelled to retreat toward Santiago de Cuba, countermarching after in the direction of Holguin.

The insurgent leader, Jose Maria Aguirre, the dispatch also says, has been shot in the head, but is improving. He is convalescing at Aguacate, province of Havana.

One hundred and fifty-six wounded Spanish soldiers arrived at Havana from the province of Pinar del Rio on Tuesday last.

CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY.

Trial of Luis Someillan Begun at Havana.

HAVANA, Jan. 9.—The trial of Luis Someillan, a naturalized American citizen, on a charge of conspiracy, was commenced at 1 o'clock yesterday. The lawyer for the defense first requested that there should be six magistrates in the tribunal instead of five in accordance with the protocol of 1321 between Spain and the United States. The request was disregarded.

United States Consul General Lee occupied a seat of honor in the courtroom. Mr. Someillan was brought from the jail with handcuffs on, but these were taken off before he entered the courtroom. The trial commenced with the reading of telegrams from Key West, one dated June 29, referring to the marriage of Matilde, and also a telegram, dated July 2, from Havana to Someillan at Key West.

Mr. Someillan declared that these cable dispatches were directed to his cousin Jose, who opened the telegram of June 29 before his clerk. He said he was personally sick in bed on June 28, 29 and 30.

A ward alderman declared that he had received an order from the district judge to secure information as to Someillan's conduct before he had been imprisoned. He replied to this order of the judge that it was publicly said that Someillan was disaffected to Spain and belonged to the revolutionary junta, but he did not name the persons who publicly said so.

There were 12 witnesses who declared that Someillan's conduct had been good but that there was public rumor to the effect that he was disaffected to Spain.

SPANIARDS DEFEATED.

This Dispatch Sounds Different From the One Weyler Sent Out.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—A Key West dispatch to The World says: Reports from Pinar del Rio contradict General Weyler's statement that all is calm and peaceful there. A large detachment of insurgents attacked on Monday a convoy of supplies 25 miles south of Artemisa, defeating the Spaniards and capturing a large supply of camp equipment and ammunition.

Near Pinar del Rio city on Tuesday, 400 Cubans, hidden in a dense thicket, fired on 500 Spanish cavalry passing, throwing them into confusion.

The Spaniards rallied and charged, only to plunge into deep trenches prepared for them. The Cubans had withdrawn after the first fire, but as the Spanish horsemen tumbled into the ditches the insurgents fired into the mass with great rapidity causing a great slaughter.

Attracted by the firing, another Spanish squadron dashed up and was met with a withering fire from the concealed Cubans.

The Spaniards finally retreated after losing perhaps 75 men. The Cubans lost only five. The Spanish officials, however, claimed a great victory in their official report.

The anti-Weyler feeling among the Spaniards in Havana is growing, and but for rigid orders and the spy system an open revolt against him would be begun, even by the officers of the palace.

News from Gomez yesterday afternoon disquieted the palace officers.

GOMEZ TRUE TO CUBA.

He Has Not Offered to Make Terms of Peace With Spain.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—At the offices of the Cuban junta in this city it was emphatically denied that any terms of peace had been sent by Maximo Gomez, commander-in-chief of the army, to Senor Sagasta, the Liberal leader in Spain.

Dr. J. D. Castillo of the junta said: "This statement no doubt emanates from the officious friends of Spain—in fact, it is but a diplomatic canard. We have received no letter from General Gomez on the subject and he would be the last man to accept such shameful terms of capitulation. Should he, through insanity, be ready to accept such terms he would be prevented from doing so by those who have at heart the defense of the constitution, which all Cubans in arms have sworn to defend. Article 2 of our constitution reads thus: 'The treaty of peace with Spain which must be based on the absolute independence of the island of Cuba, shall be ratified by the council of government and the representative assembly expressly convened for the purpose.'"

"All efforts to influence public opinion by this means will signify fail. The American people are with us and will not share with the friends of Spain the responsibility of the stand taken by them, and will never side with the oppressors against the oppressed. Cuba will be free."

CLEARANCE PAPERS WITHHELD.

The Dauntless Can Not Sail For Cuba For Several Days Yet.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The secretary of the treasury has received a telegram from the collector of customs at Jacksonville, Fla., stating that the suspected filibuster the Dauntless had returned to that port and had represented that she had been on a wrecking expedition and now asked for clearance for Nevittas, Cuba, with a cargo of arms and other munitions of war.

The collector asked for instructions and in reply the secretary directed the collector to make a full report in the case of the Dauntless. Until this report is received, which may take several days, the desired clearance papers will be withheld.

Thirty-eight days are required for a letter to go from New York to the Falkland islands.

COOPER CAPTURED.

The Negro Desperado Taken After a Stubborn Fight.

SHORTLY AFTERWARD LYNCHED.

Hung to a Limb of a Tree and His Body Riddled With Bullets, Over a Hundred and Fifty Shots Being Fired at Him—No One Held to Blame by the Coroner Who Held the Inquest.

SUMTER, S. C., Jan. 9.—Simon Cooper, the negro outlaw who Thursday murdered three members of the Wilson family and a colored servant, was lynched near here yesterday. Cooper was captured by a sheriff's posse and was being taken to Sumter when the mob decided to hang him. The deputy sheriff, aided by two men, resisted the lynchers, but were overpowered. A rope was thrown over the limb of a tree and as the man swung upward his body was pierced by more than 150 bullets. One bullet cut the rope and the corpse fell to the ground, where the coroner found it some hours later, when he went to hold an inquest.

Cooper was captured about noon in a cabin five miles from this place. About 2 o'clock in the morning Jake Dargan, colored, went to the house of W. S. Burkett, a white neighbor, and said that Cooper was at his house asleep. Burkett rode to Sumter with the news, and a deputy sheriff with a posse of nine men immediately left. A woman and a man were in the house with Cooper. He sent the woman out and later sent the man to buy him ammunition in Camden, giving him a sample shell. The man rode over to the posse and gave them the shell. Cooper was well armed with Winchesters and kept up a continuous fire. The house is small and on a hill in the open, so that the posse could not at first come within range with any degree of safety. Once Cooper came out of the house with a gun and was taking aim, when a Mr. McCown fired at him. Cooper immediately dropped his gun and seemed to be hit. He did not shoot but returned to the house.

Cooper's steady fire kept the crowd under cover for some time. About noon, however, an advance was made and the posse closed in. After a parley Cooper agreed to come out. Several men posted themselves at the door and as the outlaw stepped out he was seized by the arms. As he stood facing the crowd a shot was fired and Cooper dropped with a rifle ball through his cheeks. He was not badly wounded, however, and as he rolled over made an attempt to get his hand to his trousers. In his shirt a razor was found, while beneath his trousers band was a loaded revolver. Cooper was drunk and after the shot became almost unmanageable.

A search of the cabin revealed a Winchester rifle, two revolvers, a valise filled with cartridges and a number of flasks, some empty and others filled with whisky. On a page torn from a blank book was written: "Remember that I killed myself; there never was a man that could take me. Simon Cooper."

Cooper was placed in a wagon with Mr. McKagen of Sumter and Mr. Turbeville of Florence and the party started for town. The crowd of nearly 100 men followed. There were mutterings of lynching, but the trouble did not culminate until Green swamp was reached, about two miles from Sumter. Then the mob demanded Cooper's surrender, the officers were overpowered and the negro lynched as related.

The coroner's jury returned a verdict that Cooper "came to his death at the hands of a mob whose members are unknown to the jury."

WORKINGMEN TALK.

Arguments Made on Tariff Issues Before the Ways and Means Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The workingmen played the principal parts in the tariff hearing yesterday before the ways and means committee. Delegates from the organizations of glassblowers, flint and lime glass workers, the bottle and window glass blowers of Illinois and Pennsylvania, and the potters of Trenton, N. J., and East Liverpool, O., spoke. All told the same story of decreased wages, mills running on short time and general distress under the operation of the Wilson law.

F. L. Bodine of Philadelphia spoke for the manufacturers of cylinder window glass and Congressman Taylor of Ohio for the potters, gave interesting illustrations of ruinous competition from Japan. F. C. Partridge of Rutland, Vt., presented a schedule agreed upon by all the marble interests and the minor interests were also represented.

Senator Vest Has No Opposition.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 9.—The Democratic caucus last night nominated Senator George G. Vest as a candidate for United States senator to succeed himself. Governor Stone's name was placed before the caucus by Mr. Washburn of Polk county. Speaker Farris for the governor and by his authority stated he was not a candidate and withdrew his name. The legislature will vote for United States senator on Jan. 19, when it is confidently expected that Vest will be re-elected.

New Archbishop of Canterbury.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—Right Hon. and Most Rev. Frederick Temple, D. D., the recently appointed archbishop of Canterbury and primate of all England, was enthroned in the cathedral at Canterbury yesterday in the presence of 12 of the bishops, 350 clergymen and a large gathering of the laity.

REV. M. C. LOCKWOOD DEAD. He Was Well Known in Cincinnati and Baltimore.

REV. M. C. LOCKWOOD.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 9.—Rev. M. C. Lockwood, pastor of the Associated Reform church in this city, and formerly pastor of the First Baptist church, Cincinnati, died at 7 o'clock yesterday morning at the Church Home and Infirmary of a complication of diseases.

Dr. Lockwood up to a week ago, was apparently in the best of health, he presided over the Sunday school entertainment Wednesday of last week. Thursday morning he complained of violent pains in the stomach, which the attending physician ascribed to acute indigestion. The pains increased in violence as the day wore on, and it was decided to call in a consulting physician. Dr. L. McLane Tiffany was called in, and he diagnosed the disease as peritonitis, complicated by other diseases.

Dr. Lockwood was informed that his condition was critical, and that an operation would be necessary to save his life. The patient consented to this, and the operation was performed Sunday. He rallied and seemed to be progressing nicely until Thursday night, when his condition changed for the worse.

He was unconscious the greater part of the night, but was free from pain when he died. He was tenderly nursed by his wife, who is prostrated by the death of her husband.

Several telegrams of sympathy have been received from the dead pastor's friends in Cincinnati.

The burial will probably be at Stamford, Conn. Stamford is Mr. Lockwood's former home, and the present home of his mother.

Dr. M. C. Lockwood was born on the 23rd day of January, 1853, and at the age of 13 he was ready for matriculation in the New York college, attending the Old Glendonian academy in Stamford, Conn. While preparing to enter Madison, now Colgate university, the father of his present wife died.

Shortly after his marriage he commenced his religious work. His mother's father was the Rev. Michael Walsh, a Methodist preacher, who had been educated in the Roman Catholic church.

The Walsh family have several distinguished members in the Roman Catholic communion, among whom is the Rev. Father Terry, D. D., the eloquent priest of Albany, N. Y.

Rev. Lockwood served at Whitehall, N. Y., four years. From there he went to Cincinnati, where he became pastor of the First Baptist church, which was then on Court street. Through his endeavors the new church was built on Wesley avenue, with which he was connected from 1885 to 1895, when he came to Baltimore as pastor of the Associated Reform church, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Rev. Wayland D. Ball.

His wife was formerly a Miss Jennie Hatch of New York, from which union there were six children. A son 18 years of age died about four months ago, and the father bled heavily over his loss.

TWELVE PEOPLE POISONED.

Poisoned Meat May Cause the Death of Several Chicago People.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Two persons are at the point of death from eating what they claim was poisoned meat, three more are in a dangerous condition, one has fully recovered, and four children are still confined to the house, while their parents were able to get about. The 12 men, women and children were taken violently ill Wednesday from eating fresh pork and sausage.

Physicians have been in constant attendance at the bedside of the stricken persons, and have managed to save the lives of at least half and they have hopes of seeing all but two of their patients recover. The friends of the family claim it was poisoned meat that caused their illness, while the butcher who sold the meat says it must have been something else. The following are the names of the victims.

Joseph Bromstedt, condition serious; slight chance for recovery. Mrs. Rosa Roth, sister-in-law of Bromstedt, slight hope of recovery.

Mrs. Martha Bromstedt's condition is quite serious, but her and her two children, Louis and Sophia, may recover.

D. Holdman, his wife and four children and Henry Roth will all recover. Besides the above it is said that at least four more families have been affected in the same way, but their cases have not been reported to either the police or the health department.

Passengers Landed in New York in 1896.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—The number of steerage passengers landed at Ellis island during 1896 was 252,350. There were 99,228 cabin passengers landed at the port of New York during the same period.

THE FAILURES OF 1896

What R. G. Dun & Company Says About Them.

UN SOUND CONCERNS WIPED OUT.

Business Will Be Better by the Purging, and Prospects for the Coming Year Seem Bright—Plenty Wheat For Export—Cotton Market Slow—Railroad Earnings Compared With Other Years.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: The year of 1897 begins with a clear advantage; the past year has swept out of the way a great number of unsound concerns which in any time of activity would have been dangerous to business. Of the 15,286 commercial and banking failures in 1896, with liabilities of $276,815,749 a large share represented crippling losses in previous years or the violence of speculative storms in 1895 or the first half of 1896, while thousands more resulted from the fury of the political tornado last fall. Banking failures amounting to $50,718,915 during the year averaged $256,156 each and were 145 per cent larger than in 1895. Commercial failures amounted to $226,096,834, a little over $1,000,000 having been added by the last day of the year, but the average of liabilities, $14,992, was smaller than in some years of great prosperity.

The failures of brokerage and "other" commercial concerns averaged $58,418 each, increasing 183 per cent over 1895, while manufacturing failures averaged $28,808 each and increased 34 per cent, and trading failures increased 18 per cent and averaged only $9,606 each.

Over four-fifths of the increase in manufacturing and trading failures was in lumber manufacturing, 170 per cent; dry goods, 50; woolen manufacturing, 161; clothing trade, 20; shoe trade, 87; leather and shoe manufacturers, 167; grocery trade, 33; machinery, 70; millinery, 117; furniture, 90, and printing 97 per cent. In 10 other branches the increase was moderate in amount, and in five, with the unclassified manufacturing and trading failures, the liabilities were smaller than in 1895.

While banking failures have not ceased at the west, apprehension about them has almost wholly subsided, and no serious influence upon general trade is now expected. Many sound concerns were doubtless caught by the epidemic, but practically all the important failures are traced to disregard of law and of banking sense at periods somewhat distant. It is felt at the west that all business will be the sounder after its purging, and the return of money to New York has exceeded shipments to the interior by $2,000,000 for the week.

Wheat rose to 92 cents on Monday, but has declined again at 89 1/4, with western receipts a million bushels smaller than last year, while Atlantic exports were 2,037,900 bushels, against 2,337,936 last year. The trade accounts indicate a great quantity in farmers' hands, enough to permit more than 100,000,000 bushels to be exported in the remaining six months.

Cotton started up a shade, but receipts from plantations are still too large for low estimates, and the condition of the cotton mills foreshadows curtailment rather than large consumption. The market for goods is extremely slow, as many infer that the unprecedented stock of print cloths indicate a similar surplus of other goods. The logic is bad, but in many branches the mills have doubtless manufactured goods anticipating a demand which has not come. It is now proposed to relieve the market by selling quantities of print cloths abroad, or by locking up 2,000,000 pieces until the market improves. The only change in quotations is one quarter cent reduction in some bleached goods. Prices of wool are a shade lower. In woolen goods the only change is a reduction of 7 1/2 in clay worsted and mixtures and orders are not more frequent.

Orders for boots and shoes have almost ceased, except for a few qualities, which have been advanced only 2 1/2 to 5 cents in price, but jobbers are buying a little more as stocks run low. Leather is stiff, and hides a shade stronger.

Enormous purchases of billets came with a rush, most of the large concerns contracting for all they required for months and even a year to come, and some of the largest contracts are said to have been about $15 or even less, but there is as yet no better demand for structural work, bars are weak, nails have declined to $1.40 for wire and $1.30 for cut, and little is doing in rails, as possible buyers think $25 is too high with billets at $15 per ton. Nevertheless a great trade is expected when relative prices become settled.

The aggregate of gross earnings of all railroads in the United States reporting for December or a part of the month, is $36,437,085, a decrease of 2.4 per cent, compared with last year and of 8.9 per cent compared with the corresponding time in 1892. The later reports make a more favorable showing than any of the earlier returns for the month. For the fourth week roads reporting show a considerable increase in gross earnings. The increase is not confined to any one section, but nearly all the large systems report a large gain in the fourth week. Compared with 1892, roads reporting for the month show reduced earnings, the greatest loss being on grangers and other western roads. As a whole the return so far made for December compares much more favorably with preceding years than the first complete report for November.

The Caldwell County Republican Committee has forwarded a petition to Gov. Bradley, asking him to call an extra legislative session as soon as practicable. The Louisville Commercial and the Hunter crowd of R-publicans wont give the Governor any rest.

The feature of the tariff hearing this week was the argument of Sigmund Muhlhauser, a manufacturer of shoddy. He wanted higher duties on rags and shoddy and declared that all the leading woolen manufacturers of the country were his patrons. The manufacturers are mad at Muhlhauser for giving out secrets.

Bonanza for Pomeroy and Hudson for Pittsburg up to-night. Stanley down Sunday.

John McAlister, who has for a long number of years been the engineer on the Portsmouth ferryboat, died Thursday, of typhoid fever.

The Times-Star says that work on Captain Mack Gamble's new Cincinnati and Wheeling packet is progressing nicely and it is expected to have the boat completed in time to enter the trade early in the spring.

There was not a single death due to steamboat accidents on the Ohio river from Pittsburg, Penn., to Carrolton, Ky., during the past twelve months. This is a remarkable showing, and has hardly ever been equaled.

Merrill, Baldwinville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it and never knew it to fail and would rather have it than any doctor, because it always cures. Splendid Work of the Women's Committee. Privileges For the Boys—The Men's Rally To-morrow Afternoon.

It is less than two months since the Women's Committee of the Y. M. C. A. was first organized, and according to the excellent report of the Treasurer, as given at the monthly meeting of the committee held yesterday afternoon, these ladies have secured from the women of the city a fund amounting to $162.60 at present time, and there are collections yet to be made. With this fund the committee have rented a piano, furnished a Brussels carpet for the reception room, nice oak furniture and portieres for the parlor, also linoleum, window shades, towels, &c. In addition to this the committee have also rendered invaluable assistance to the association committees in connection with the formal opening of the new rooms and the recent New Years, both events being highly successful. Everyone interested in this good work will surely join in thanking these good ladies of the committee for their unselfish and constant labors on behalf of the association, and also every mother, sister, wife or friend who in any way contributed toward this special fund.

This afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock the Juniors, boys between ten and fifteen years of age who desire to join the association, will be allowed to come to the rooms and use the privileges of the amusement and reading rooms. An hour of gymnasium instruction will also be given. Heavy or dangerous work in the gymnasium will be forbidden, and only such exercises as will tend to develop muscular control and the health of the boys will be taught by those in charge. Any boy may become a member on paying the fee of $3. "The Young Man's Temptations," was the chief thought at last Sunday's rally, and an able address was then given on that subject by Dr. Hays. At the gathering to-morrow afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock, several young men will assist the leader in giving a Bible reading on "The Young Man's Companions," a theme which will naturally follow the one considered on Sunday last. Dr. P. G. Smoot is to have charge of the opening song service, and special music may be provided.

THE State authorities have received a check for $10,843 from the heirs of the late Elizabeth M. Bedford, who died in Lewis County in 1860. Mrs. Bedford made a will giving her property to her son Robert, to be at his death turned over to his heirs. If he died without heirs it was to be used for the benefit of the schools of the State. Robert died in 1873, and his mother's brothers claimed the property. It has been in litigation since. Last May Judge Lewis, of the Court of Appeals, held that the property goes to the State. Superintendent of Public Instruction Davidson, Secretary of State Finley and Attorney General Taylor will invest the money for the Board of Education.

HERB MEDICINE CO. SPRINGFIELD, O.

MCKINLEY'S CABINET.

The President-Elect Not at Work Upon It Himself, but There Are Others.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 9.—McKinley is resting quietly at the home of Colonel Herrick protected as far as possible from callers who have no legitimate claim upon him. He is not now at work upon his message, but is receiving visitors and resting. Last night Senator Allison was discussed for the state portfolio, by the president-elect and several of his Cleveland friends. It is understood that Allison desires to finish his term in the senate. It is stated that when McKinley returns to Canton, Senator Sherman will visit him there.

Among the callers at the Herrick home yesterday were two sons of ex-presidents, Hon. James R. Garfield and Webb C. Hayes. In the afternoon McKinley took a drive with Colonel Herrick and lunched with him at the Union club. Mr. and Mrs. McKinley and Colonel and Mrs. Herrick took dinner and spent the evening with Mrs. Sarah Duncan, the president's sister.

Mr. Hanna was in conference yesterday with Hon. S. P. Taylor, secretary of the state of Ohio, whose term of office is about to expire, and Colonel John Donaldson of Columbus. Major Dick denied that he had been agreed upon as the president's private secretary.

The cabinet predicted by one who has been a friend and staunch supporter of Mr. McKinley during his later public career is as follows: Secretary of state, Senator Sherman; secretary of the treasury, Mr. Dingley of Maine, if his health permits; secretary of war, General Alger; secretary of the navy, Cornelius Bliss; attorney general, Judge Goff of West Virginia; secretary of the interior, Judge McKenna of California; postmaster general, Mr. Hanna, provided Senator Sherman is not secretary of state; secretary of agriculture, a farmer from the central west.

Senator Aldrich For Treasury Portfolio.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Senator Aldrich refused to discuss a report in circulation here to the effect that he had been tendered the office of secretary of the treasury. When seen by a reporter he said:

"Anything I would say would be misconstrued and I think my best plan is to say nothing."

"You can say," it was suggested to him, "whether there is any foundation for the story. Whether it is true or not."

"No, I can not say that. I can say nothing about it at all."

The senator was in close conference during the day and remained late at the Capital in conference with his friends. He called on Mr. Dingley during the day.

SENSATION IN THE HOUSE.

Congressman Johnson Indulges in Personalities Over the Funding Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The second day's debate on the Pacific railroad funding bill developed by far the most sensational incident of this session of congress. Mr. Johnson (Rep., Cal.), the only member of the California delegation who favors the funding bill, in the course of his remarks took occasion to make a remarkable vituperative personal attack on Editor Hearst of the San Francisco Examiner. He described Mr. Hearst and Mayor Sutro as men who were terrorizing the Pacific coast members and made statements concerning the former which led Mr. Cooper (Rep., Wis.) to characterize it later as "the most disgraceful attack in the legislative annals of the United States."

The members who had been listening attentively to Mr. Johnson's remarks, as he always is one of the most entertaining speakers in the house, were thunderstruck at the lengths to which he went. Once at the last session Mr. Johnson denounced Mr. Hearst, but on that occasion he was called to order by Mr. Maguire of California. Yesterday he completed his Philippic without interruption.

The speech created a profound sensation, which was increased by Mr. Cooper's denunciation of it as a cowardly attempt to blacken the reputation of a man of "positive genius." Mr. Cooper also took occasion to score the gentlemen from California roundly for his attitude toward the bill.

Mr. Johnson made no attempt to reply to Mr. Cooper. This incident completely overshadowed the interest in the debate on the funding bill and thereafter it proceeded quietly to the hour when the recess was taken. The general debate has closed. The bill will now be taken up for amendment under the five-minute rule.

An Old Man Suicides.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 9.—Henry Stone, 65 years of age and well known member of the Merchants' Exchange, ended his life by taking a dose of poison in his room in an Olive street boarding house. The coroner was notified as soon as possible and then it developed that the old gentleman had taken his own life in fear of becoming penniless and helpless.

Misplaced Switch Causes a Wreck.

ORANGEVILLE, O., Jan. 9.—A misplaced switch caused a wreck on the Erie railway here yesterday. Train No. 82 went into a ditch and 10 cars were completely wrecked. A steam snow plow was demolished.

Just in Time.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 9.—Colonel George Washington, who is attorney for Alonzo Walling, sent to the court of appeals yesterday the papers in support of his motion for a rehearing. The time for filing these papers expires today. Judge Hazlett, who prepared the opinions of the court in the Jackson and Walling cases, will probably be required to pass on the applications for rehearing.

English Lady Sent to Prison.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—Lady Selina Scott, the mother-in-law of Earl Russell, who, through counsel, pleaded guilty yesterday in the central criminal court of criminally libeling his lordship in connection with John Cockerton, an engineer, and William Aylott, a valet, as sentenced to eight months' imprisonment without hard labor. Cockerton and Aylott, who also pleaded guilty, received similar sentences.

Believe Anything of Weyler.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—A Paris dispatch to The Daily News says: "If the report that Dr. Zertucha had offered to guide the Spaniards over the province of Pinar del Rio in Cuba be correct, it will increase the belief that Maceo's death was due to treachery. General Weyler's latest measure, prohibiting the sale even of medicines to the rebels, warrants believing anything of him."

Too Much Work For Weyler.

MADRID, Jan. 9.—An official dispatch from Havana states that Captain General Weyler will turn over the military operations in the province of Pinar del Rio to another commander, while he himself will direct decisive operations in Havana and Matanzas provinces. Weyler refused to allow a demonstration in his honor last night.

Preferred Death to Idleness.

SING SING, Jan. 9.—On the 1st of the month convict labor was abolished in all prisons of this state and yesterday Frederick Hoffman, a prisoner here, while depressed for lack of employment, threw himself from a gallery, where he was taking exercise, to the floor, 75 feet below. It is thought he can not recover. Hoffman told Warden Sage that he feared his mind would give way unless he had some work to do. He was a printer.

Buying Horses For McKinley.

ORANGEBURG.

Wednesday evening, December 30, 1896, is a date long to be remembered and be looked back to with pleasure by quite a number of young ladies and gentlemen who assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Calvert, in honor of their son Clarence and his guest, Mr. James Wilson, of Germantown. Their delightful and hospitable home was thrown open to the happy faces of the fair young maidens and gallant beaux who made the occasion thoroughly enjoyable. The hours were spent in the gay dance of bounding beauty that links grace and harmony in happiest chime. Then came the wee' sma' hours, when after hearty expressions of a happy evening came the word farewell,—a word that hath been and must be a sound that makes us linger, yet farewell. Those present were: Miss Ella Forman, Dayton, Ky., Misses Eliza'eth and Nanlene Tolle, of Maysville, Bertie Hauke, Lena, Etta and Daddie Tolle, Blanche Kirkland, Lottie True, Ida Turner, Mary Crosby, Agnes Guerin and Misses Browning, Messrs. Lee Mason, Claude Tucker, Thomas Gooch, of Maysville; Charles and Cyrus Case, Harry McElfresh, Fred and Tilden Hauke, John and Beverly Applegate, Herbert Kirkland, Charles White, Ed. and Otis Lukin, John Wilson, George Curtis, Winn Bowman and Charles Stevenson, of Tollesboro, Abner Bramel and Clarence Calvert and Mr. and Mrs. Gus L. Tolle. Mrs. Calvert was assisted in entertaining by her charming little niece, Miss Mary E. Calvert.

When they put a man in jail, he cannot follow his natural inclinations. He cannot eat what he wants to—he is limited to a very frugal diet. Is it not equally true of a dyspeptic? For all of the real enjoyment he gets out of life, he might as well be in jail. He cannot eat what he likes, nor enough. He suffers much, gets little sympathy. At first, perhaps a little heaviness in the stomach, a little sourness, windy belchings and heartburn; headaches and biliousness and a foul taste in the mouth in the morning. Chronic constipation is almost inevitable, and means that the body is holding poisons, impure matter that should be gotten rid of. The poison is being reabsorbed into the blood and the whole body. Impurity in the blood may lead to almost any disease. Constipation is the start of it all. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, cure it so it stays cured. Nootner remedy in the world will do that. Send 21 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page Common Sense Medical Adviser, illustrated.

Paid Too Much For the Baby.
Caleb has three children—John, Mary and Jane. John is the eldest and so the most inquiring. He had heard that babies were bought from doctors, and one day asked his mother about prices. "Mother, how much did I cost?" he inquired. As some reply had to be made, his mother said $1,000. John thought it over for a moment, and then asked: "How much did you pay for Mary?" "Fifteen hundred dollars." "Why, she cost more than me." "Yes, girls always cost more than boys." "What did you pay for Jane?" Jane is a little self-willed tyrant. "Jane cost $2,000," said Mrs. Caleb, and John lapsed into deep thought. In a few moments he said, "Mamma, I don't think Mary cost too much, but you got stuck with Jane."—New York Times.

A Unique Republic.

The republic of Goust is the smallest in the world. Andorra is an empire in comparison. Goust is about a mile square, and it houses 180 persons. It has been independent these 250 years. It stands on top of a mountain by the Spanish border, near the edge of France, and it gets along very comfortably without ever mixing itself in other people's affairs, and without reading the evening papers, or, so far as we know, the morning ones. The delectable 180 govern themselves by a council, one member of which is selected to see that the business agreed upon is executed. Matters go along very smoothly, and Goustians are all the happier because nobody knows much about them, and therefore they are unenvied.—Kansas City Times.

New York, Jan. 9.—The Journal prints a half page displayed telegram from Washington, and from Madrid, in which it is said that Spain asks America to advise her on Cuban reforms.

RALEIGH, Jan. 9.—Twenty Pritchard Populists walked out of the Populist senatorial caucus last night, which practically gives the fight to Pritchard. It is thought that the Butler forces are now trying to make a truce.
